

W. D. "Dan" Libby

He is a 38-year veteran of law enforcement, both as a Sheriff's Chief Deputy and as a Chief of Police, Chief Dan Libby now teaches extensively regarding law enforcement and criminal justice and serves as a consulting expert and expert witness on such police procedures topics as administrative negligence, employment policies, civil rights violations, training and discipline, search and seizure, and internal affairs investigations.

He earned a Juris Doctor degree from New England Law in Boston, Massachusetts in 1982 and is a member of the Massachusetts Bar.

He has instructed close to 20,000 individuals in all areas of the criminal justice system. For the last ten years he has specialized in instructing legal issues in internal affairs for the Institute of Police Technology and Management (University of North Florida).

He is a graduate of the Command Officer Training Program at Babson College in Wellesley, Massachusetts, the 202nd session of the FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia, and the Florida Department of Law Enforcement's Charter Executive Leadership Class.