

Kris E. Pitcher

- Commander Kris Pitcher Has been employed by the Los Angeles Police Department for 28 years
- He has been assigned as a command officer for 15 of the 28 years
- Currently assigned as the Assistant Commanding Officer of an operations bureau approximately 231 square miles with over 2,300 police officers and detectives serving over 2 million residents
- Has commanded patrol, detective and specialized divisions all throughout the City of Los Angeles
- Was assigned as the Commanding Officer of LAPD's Force Investigation Division for 5+ years with the responsibility for investigating, supervising, reviewing, approving and presenting the most critical UOF and OIS cases
- Developed policy, procedure and protocol for OIS investigations during the Department's Consent Decree
- Provides training, instruction and consultation for numerous agencies across the country; especially those involved in Federal Consent Decrees including New Orleans, Seattle and Detroit Police Departments
- Published author on the subject of effective OIS & UOF investigations and conference speaker at IACP and numerous other national police practice seminars and conferences
- On staff at AELE as a subject matter expert lecturer
- Holds B.A. and M.P.A. degrees, attended PERF's Senior Management Institute for Police (SMIP) and Harvard's Kennedy School of Government Executive Development Program